Holly Bruder, to de-

King said May 24 was the last day the tournament was allotted to happen so he wanted to settle a winner on the field.

The Lady Cardinals were an inning away from winning the tournament championship in their first game against Liberty but allowed four runs in the seventh inning, losing 8-5, and forcing the decisive game.

Bruder said she didn't want to start a second game with Liberty because it might not finish but King decided to play the game.

"It was my decision to start the game," King said.
"My attitude was to let the winner be decided on the field and unfortunately that didn't happen."

Bruder described her team's mood as "somber" because of the decision.

"We're not scared to lose," Bruder said. "We're professionals."

"If we lose, though, we want it to feel fair and just and we don't feel like that happened."

Social media outrage started immediately after the decision was announced.

Twitter users, including Southland commissioner Tom Burnett, voiced their displeasure upon learning of the decision.

"Wait...what?" Burnett tweeted at Lamar softball's official Twitter account — @LamarSoftball — after seeing its tweet about the decision.

The Lady Cardinals, who finished 34-31 in their fifth season as a program, returned to Beaumont the day after the loss and were welcomed home by fans at the Lamar Softball Complex.

"My heart breaks for that director Jason Henderson said from the Southland Baseball Tournament in Sugar Land. "I'm disap-
